There's much in this life, after all, That's pleasant, if people would take it, On some of us treuble must fall, But sure I am most of us make it. Let us look for the ups and the downs, And try to take things as we find them ; And, if we are met by the frowns,-

Believe that a smile is behind them. What have we, we did not receive? Is the world not sufficiently roomy? Then, why should we wish to believe v. e were sent into life to be gloomy? We may meet with some rubs in our day, But don't let us tremble for fear of them; Rather hope they'll not come in our way,

And do all we can to keep clear of them. These are regions of quicksands and rocks, And it's difficult, too, to steer round them; A good plumb line might save us some knocks, But it's no easy matter to sound them, For our needle may point the wrong way, And our chart do no more than mislead us, Till we find that "each dog has his day," And a friend's all alive to succeed us.

But there's much in this life, after all, That's pleasant, if people would take it: Though on some of us trouble must fall, Full sure I am most of us make it. Let us look for the ups and the downs, And try to take things as we find them; And if we are met by the frowns,— Believe that a smile is behind them.

A PIRATICAL AND FRUITLESS EXPE DITION

The London Times, in a late article reviewing some of the expeditionary exploits performed by the British naval M J Mason & lady, NY D White, do and military forces, spoke of the foray upon Washington during the War of 1812 in this wise: "The success of the British force that dashed up the Potomac, RT Taylor, NY landed, and after a quick march, destroyed R N Johnson, Va Washington, and then as speedily beat a A K Armstrong, do. retreat, can hardly be considered an affair of legitimate warfare, being little more than a piratical and fruitless surprise on an unarmed and unsuspecting

This is a remarkable admission for the JG Lucas, Wash Times to make, but it conveys a wrong J W Pelk, Balt Dr Gocke, Ports impression to the reader ignorant of the J H Paimer, NO history of that expedition. It was a O Stem, Rich shameless and barbarous affair, which R B Scott, NY Englishmen may well condemn : but the Mrs F Westmore, Nor marauders under Cockburn and Ross did Mrs Winberger and svt, not escape unharmed. SORE SHOULDERS OF HORSES .- In reply to an inquiry as to the best treatment for a horse of tender skin, whose shoulders get chafed by the collar from the work. the editor of the North Britain Agriculturist gives some directions, of which the following is the sum and substance. He says, when a sore is actually formed in | Enamelled top French ratent leather foxed Gaiters consequence of chafing by the collar, the All varieties of common Boots and Shoes, pegged horse should either be laid off work, or the collar stuffing should be removed so as to prevent pressure on the wound. A mixture containing half an ounce of sulphate of zinc to a quart of water should be continually applied by means of a soft rag saturated with the mixture and laid upon the sore. This plan of keeping the part constantly wet, tends to abate in flammation and soreness, and rapidly iaduces the healing process. If the horse cannot be allowed to rest, the collar must be eased as before directed, the sore well bath with water, and then dressed with the above mixture before going to work and on coming from it. If the skin be Alexandria, Prince George's, Montgomery, and the unbroken and merely tender or somewhat thicked or perhaps rather knotty, a strong solution of common salt in water is a very excellent application. SCRAP OF HISTORY .- During the revolutionary war, Gen. Lafayette being in Baltimore, was invited to a ball. He went as requested, but instead of joining the amusement, as might be expected of a young Frenchman of twenty-two, addressed the ladies thus:

"Ladies, you are very handsome ; you dance prettily; your ball is very finebut my soldiers have no shirts.

The appeal was irresistible. The ball ceased; the ladies went home and went to work, and the next day a large number of shirts were prepared by the fairest hands of Baltimore for the gallant defenders of their country.

DR. MURSE'S INVIGORATING MLIXIR OR CORDIAL.—At first the proper-ties attributed to Pro'. MORSE'S INVIGORATING KLIXIR OR CORDIAL were deemed fabulous. The public often deceived, sould not believe the simple and sublime truths appounced by the discoverer .-But facts, undeniable facts attested by witnesses of the highest elses and character, are now trium-hing over all doubts. EHCREDULITY IS OVER-THROWN by a mass of testimony which is perfectly irresistable

The Euxia remedies, in all cases, the deplorable evils arising from a misuse or abuse of the various organs which make up the wonderful machine called man. It restores to full v cor every delicate tunction connected with that reveledous compound agency of matter in 1 mind, necessary to the re-production of human life. To persons of feeble muscular frame, or deficient in vital power, it is recommended as the only means of communicating that energy which is necessary to the proper enjoyment of all the natural appetites, as well as the higher mental attributes. Its beneficial effecte are not confined to either sex or to any age. The feeble girl, the ailing wife, the listless, ernevated youth, the overworn man of business, the victim of nervous de pression, the individual suffering from general debility, or from the weakness of a single organ, will all find immediate and permanent relief from the use of this incomparable renovator. To those who have a predisposition to paralysis it will prove a complete and unfalling safeguard against that terrible malady. There are many, perhaps, who have so trifled with their constitutions, that they think themselves be and the reach of medicine. Let not even these despair. The Elixir deals with disease as it exists, without reference to causes, and will not only remove the disorder itself, but REBUILD THE BROKEN CONSTITUTION. The derangements of the system, leading to neryous diseases, and the forms of nervous disease it self, are so numerous that it would require a column to enumerate the maladies for which this prepararation is a specific. A few, however, may be enumerated, viz: neuralgia, tic dolereaux, headache, incipient paralysis, hysteria, palpitation of the heart, sp: na affections muscular debility, tremers, flatulence. a pricking sensation in the flesh, numbness, torpid ity of the liver, mental depression, weakness of the will, indispo ition te move, faintness after exercise, broken sleep an i terrifying dreams, inability to remain in one place I position, weakness of the procreative organs, sexual incompetency, melancholy, monomania, fluor albus, - nking at the stomach, fo male irregularities, a chronic tendency to miscarriage, emaciation, and all complaints growing out of a free indulgence of the passions, and all barrenness that does not proceed from organic causes beyond Whenever the organs to be acted upon are free from malformation or strictural diseases it is averred will replace weakness with strength, incapacity with efficiency, irregularity with uniform and natural sctivity, and this not only without hazard of reaction, but with a happy effect on the general organization. Bear in mind that all maladies, wherever they begin, finish with the nervous system, and that the paralization of the nerves or motion and sensation is physical death. Bear in mind also, that for every kind of nervous disease the Elixer Cordial is the only reliable preparation known. CAUTION. DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has been counterfeited by some unprincipled persons.
